

Name of startup/Students	CEO/Founder	Brief/Description
Students
MamaPesa	Juliet wanjiru	Asset financing digital platform for women through credit. Our competitive advantage is that we strictly finance assets, offer financial literacy and match indecisive users to their desired assets via AI.
Audread	Joseph Gakah	An intelligent learning system that will utilize the power of Artificial intelligence and extended Reality to create realistic and revolutionary learning experience to refugees and learners from just their phones.
Classify Me	Lindah June Adhiambo	A personalized course recommender system for high school students.
Start-Ups
Hali Halisi	Doleen Muthoni	Hali Halisi is a Kiswahili word that means the spirit of authenticity. It is a digital solution in Kenya and the African sign language space. We provide sign language interpreters to Deaf persons

		accessing healthcare services, through video and video relay services, regardless of the user's location. Our main area of focus is expectant mothers accessing quality maternal healthcare, thus contributing to lowering the infant mortality rate. Our onboarding of interpreters ensures that interpreters are of a high standard with continuous access to training and resources to build their capacity which will ensure the Deaf have access to quality information.
Deaf eLimu Plus	Hudson Asiema Dorothy Andesia	Deaf-owned ed-tech company with a mission to provide equal access to education for the Deaf and hard-hearing community.
Getpayd	Japheth Achimba Benaiah Wepundi	A platform where you can create no code payment pages, generate payment links & QR codes, automate invoices and payment links and be supplied with AI powered analytics to help track and be advised on the best financial management practices.